CURIOUS ABOUT WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN?

Do you really know what to expect? Do you know why it happens? Do you fully understand the pressures that mergers put on management?

And do you know what you need to do to help the situation?

This booklet will give you a realistic look at what often happens when a firm is acquired and merged.

Then it tells you how to rise to the occasion and be a positive influence. It coaches you on how to be a "survivor," regardless of how your job and your career are affected by the merger.
